

Jesuit Refugee Service/USA Communications and Design Intern

Jesuit Refugee Service/USA

The mission of Jesuit Refugee Service/USA (JRS/USA) is to accompany, serve, and advocate for refugees and forcibly displaced persons. JRS works in more than 45 countries worldwide to meet the educational, health, psycho-social, and emergency needs of nearly 750,000 refugees and other forcibly displaced persons regardless of race, ethnic origin, or religious beliefs.

Job Description

JRS/USA seeks an energetic student to join its communications team this Fall as the Communications Intern. Reporting to the Director of Communications, the Communications intern will assist in developing materials for executing innovative digital and print communications strategies.

Location

Washington, DC

Job Responsibilities

- Assist in developing and adapting content for new website development and migration.
- Assist in the organizing of visual assets (photos, videos) in JRS digital asset manager.
- Help develop content for donors, advocates, and JRS supporters.
- Develop visual content for social media (video, social media cards).
- Support other social media needs where necessary.

Qualifications

- Interest in refugee issues.
- Experience with or interest in digital communications.
- Proficient in Adobe Creative Suite desired.
- Experience using social media platforms.
- Ability to work flexibly.
- Good sense of humor.
- Detail-oriented.